

grace-filled FINANCES

Faith Filled Investment

Jeremy M. Gwaltney
June 11, 2023

Key Thought: A future focus often provides present stability. Grace allows us to invest in faith-filled generosity and experience true financial freedom.

Long-Term vs. Short Term

Future focus provides present _____. (Phil. 3:20-21, 4:17, Col. 3:1-2)
The investment currency = _____

Jesus and Money (Matthew 6:19-34)

We invest in faith when we _____ money.

Jesus acknowledges that money is connected to your _____ (v.30-32)

Jesus says you can trust God because he _____ for you. (v.32)

The practical step to help us trust God with provision is _____.
(Proverbs 3:9-10)

The _____ was three things for the people of God.
_____ of all their earning

It was the " _____ " of their income

Went to the _____ house of worship for spiritual provision

Jesus believed in _____ (Matthew 23:23)

We invest in faith when we use money to _____ treasures in heaven.

Jesus is saying that generosity is an expression of _____ (2 Corinthians 8:1-3)

Jesus is saying that your treasure is the measure of your _____

Jesus is saying that affection is the measure of your _____

We invest in faith when we use money to _____ Jesus Kingdom.

Jesus is telling us that faith-filled generosity builds an _____ legacy.
(Philippians 4:17)

How To Get Started

Get your financial house in _____ (1 Timothy 5:8)

Start the _____

Be a _____ Builder